She is one of the first female Eagle candidates in the Greater Waterbury area and her project is working with the Safe Haven of Greater Waterbury, Inc. Maggie's website is <http://scoutingforher.com/> where you can find a link to her GoFindMe page to help with her project.

Troop 6 was established in May of 2019 as a Female, Boy Scouts of America troop. Our girls come from Waterbury, Naugatuck, Middlebury, Southbury, Watertown, Woodbury, and more! We currently have 13 scouts and are looking to grow. The girls learn important life skills, including but not limited to, leadership, responsibility, and serving our communities. They are excited to be reading the Gettysburg address at the Memorial Day ceremony at the Middlebury cemetery at noon as well as marching in the Middlebury Memorial Day Parade on May 30, at 5 pm.

For more information about Troop 6, please check out our Facebook page "Troop 6 Middlebury, CT" or to find a troop in your area, go to <https://beascout.scouting.org> and enter your zip code.
